THE South-Carolina GAZETTE

From THURSDAY June 24th, to THURSDAY July 1st, 17[illegible]

NEW-YORK, May 3.

YESTERDAY his excellency major-general Shirley embarked for Albany, as did most of the officers of the army.

We hear that Sir William Johnson is to have a meeting with the heads of many different nations of Indians, at Onondago, the 15th instant; and that the seven Indians of Ulster, Orange and Dutchess counties, in this province, are to be incorporated with the Mohawks, at the request of some of their sachems, as well to strengthen the latter, as to secure and impede the former from murdering any more of our people, as 'tis evident they formerly practised.

Williamsburgh, April 16. By a messenger from Winchester, we have advice, That on thursday the 1st instant, a small party of Indians were seen before Capt. Ashby's fort, on which he, with 15 men, went out in quest of them, but on passing near the place where they were first discovered, he was fired upon by a large body of the enemy who lay concealed, and was obliged to retreat to his fort in the best manner he could, with the loss of 6 men. The enemy after this made 2 ineffectual attempts upon the fort, and then retired, carrying off their dead and wounded. They afterwards surprized 6 of Capt. Cox's men escorting a waggon, within half a mile of his fort, 4 luckily escaped, but the other 2 are missing.

The Cherokee's still continue in town, and have had several conferences with the governor and council; and we hear have agreed to proceed immediately to Winchester to join our forces.

Yesterday came to town several of the Nottoways, to renew their antient league with their Brothers the Cherokees, which was done in the market place, by smoaking the pipe &c. after which the Cherokee warrior made a long speech, desiring the Nottoways to go immediately to the assistance of their brothers the English, to fight strong, and drive away the French and Indians, who have seized the land of their father King George. The Nottoways have agreed to go, and will set off in a few days together with the Cherokees.

Philadelphia, May 6. Last week his honour our governor set out for Harris's ferry, to review the regiment, and forward the expedition to Shamokin, under the experienced Col. Clapham. His honour was escorted out of town by part of Capt. Jones's troop of horse, and the officers of Capt. Vanderspiegle's independent company, who being all dressed in their uniform, made a genteel appearance.

We hear that that the honourable house of commons presented an humble address to his majesty, some time in February, requesting 2 petitions from the inhabitants of this city to be laid before them.

We hear from Virginia, that the government, at their own expence, are going to send the French Neutra's that are there to England.

St. John's Antigua, April 10. The Cromwell sloop, commanded by Walter Stirling, Esq; has taken and sent into St. John's road, a French schooner laden chiefly with provisions.

New York, May 10. His excellency governor Shirley arrived at Albany on thursday last.

Several companies of 100 men each, have arrived here since our last, from distant parts of this colony, as part of the 1315 effective men which his excellency our governor is impowered to raise for the expedition against Crown Point.

Capt. William Fiany, in the schooner Betsey, bound from York in Virginia, to Winyah in South-Carolina, was overset the 17th of March last in a violent gale of wind, and every man on board drowned, except one man, named Finch, who continued on the wreck 'till the 21st of March, in lat. 33, when he was happily taken off by a French schooner bound from Missippi for Martinico, from whence he got to St. Eustatia, and gave the above information.

Friday last Capt. Foster came to town with a company of our provincial forces, which have been raised [illegible] battoe men; I learn the inhabitants below are seized with an universal pannic on what happened at the Carrying Place, and for fear of this garison: As this ill-timed terror may be of use to the enemy, and disadvantage to us, I have sent down Wells with his party, in hopes their presence may dispel their fears, and encourage all concerned to proceed on their duty. You may satisfy the world that we are all well at this date, and not apprehensive of danger. I hope our vigilance will prevent a surprize, and that our zeal for his majesty's service will unite us in a steady defence if attacked."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Albany, dated the 6th instant.

"Last week an express arrived here from fort William Henry, at lake George, and fort Edward, informing us, That the people in garison there, intended to go to their respective habitations, by the first day of May, the Time for which they were enlisted being then expired. A detachment of 200 of our militia, and 100 regulars, were immediately sent to relieve them; but as several of the New England men are since gone up, we expect our men will soon return. Those of our people that did not go, threw money on the drum head for those that went —Tuesday last we were alarmed by an express from the Carrying-place, with advice, that two Indians were come in there and reported, that two parties of French and Indians were on their march, one designed for the Carrying Place, and the other for the German-Flats: Another party of our militia, and the troop, is gone to their aid; God knows what will be the event. — A man, with his wife, and 6 children, were carried off from the German flats, by a party of Indians; who, in their way, and about a mile from thence, killed and scalped another man."

Philadelphia, May 13. On monday last the general assembly of this province met here.

By Capt. Allison, from Antigua, there is advice, that the French 74 gun ship, and 2 frigates, that lately took the Warwick man of war, and carried her into Martinico, expected to have found there one ship of 80 guns, 3 ships of 74 guns each, and 3 frigates, having all sailed together for that port from Old France.

We hear that the assembly of Virginia have voted 65000 l. for the defence of that province; and that they propose to build a range of forts along the frontiers, in order to join those of Maryland and Pennsylvania.

From Potowmack we have advice, that on the 22d of last month 6 Indians came through the North mountain, at Mills's Gap, about 5 miles from Cunningham's fort, and surprized one David Kelly and family; Kelly they killed and scalped, and carried off his wife and 6 children: That one boy, about 15 years of age, escaped, and brought the news to Winchester: upon which an express was sent to Col. Washington, who immediately sent a detachment of 30 men, who found Kelly, and buried him, and discovered the tracks of the Indians, but did not get up with them. That on the 23d and 24th 8 houses were burnt, 6 of which by the Indians, the other 2 supposed to be set on fire by some white people, for the sake of plunder. That 3 white men were seen with the Indians, one of which coming into a fort since on Opekin, was taken up, and sent to Gosl, having a horse in his custody that belonged to a person that lived near the abovementioned Kelly. That Thomas Cressop, and the independent company, 39 in number, marched from Fort Cumberland on the 23d, intending for the Little Meadows, and about George's creek coming on fresh tracks, pursued with all speed, when, about 18 miles from the fort, they heard the Indians hollow behind them; that thereupon they put themselves in order, and in a few minutes 5 of the enemy appeared in the waggon road; upon which a man in the rear fired, before they came against the center, contrary to agreement. That the Indians then fled as fast they could into a laurel swamp 40 paces off, where they [illegible] other 4 more appeared [illegible] immediately pursued, [illegible] ran. That after [illegible] Cressop, and [illegible] the Indians, [illegible]

The Humble ADDRESS of the Council of the said Province [illegible]

May it please Your Excellency,

WE His Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Clergy [illegible] to offer our sincere Congratulations upon Your safe Arrival to this Province; and at the same Time, we cannot but testify the Sense we have of the great Favour shewn by our Gracious Sovereign, in appointing Your Excellency to this Government.

As Virtue and Religion not only constitute the true Dignity of human Nature, but likewise add the firmest Strength to civil Government, we therefore entertain the Hope, that Your Excellency, by the Influence of Your Example, will discountenance and, by the Weight of Your Power, suppress every Degree of Vice and Irreligion.

The distinguished Regard which Your Excellency has been early taught to pay to the Christian Religion of Christ, by the power and influence of living Examples in Your household, gives us a well-grounded Assurance that Your best and most earnest Endeavours will be exerted, to protect and strengthen the Church, promoting this great Blessing and Privilege.

As it is our Duty, so we [illegible] All-powerful Being, in whose Hands are the Blessings of Health and Life, that they may serve both to Your Excellency's Honour, and enable You to bear the heavy Cares and Burden of Your high Station; and we sincerely pray the Sovereign Disposer of Events, to crown Your Endeavours for the public Welfare, with uninterrupted Success, and to shed abroad in Your Heart the Love of Eternal Peace and true Comfort, which the World can neither give nor take away.

To which His Excellency made the following

ANSWER.

Gentlemen,

I Return you my very cordial Thanks for your Address, and shall esteem nothing more than the Continuance of your Love and Prayers for the Success of my Administration. My most earnest Endeavours shall not be wanting, to promote the Practice of true and undefiled Christian Piety within this Province; which alone, we can hope for the Favour and Protection of Almighty God: And you, Gentlemen, as Fathers of his most loyal People, can give the most effectual Support to the Measures I shall pursue for their Lives and Liberties, by your Example, as well as to Religion and Good Manners.

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY June 24th, to THURSDAY July 1st, 1756.

NEW YORK, May 3.

YESTERDAY his excellency major-general Shirley embarked for Albany, attended most of the officers of the army.

We hear that Sir William Johnson is to have a meeting with the heads of many different nations of Indians, at Oswego, the 11th instant; and that the river Indians of Ulster, Orange and Dutchess counties, in this province, are to be incorporated with the Mohawks, at the request of some of their sachems, as well to strengthen the latter, as to secure and impede the former from murdering any more of our people, as 'tis evident they formerly practised.

Williamsburgh, April 16. By a messenger from Winchester, we have advice, That on thursday the 8th instant, a small party of Indians were seen before Capt. Ashby's fort, on which he, with 15 men, went out in quest of them, but on passing near the place where they were first discovered, he was fired upon by a large body of the enemy who lay concealed, and was obliged to retreat to his fort in the best manner he could, with the loss of 6 men. The enemy after this made 2 ineffectual attempts upon the fort, and then retired, carrying off their dead and wounded. They afterwards surprized 6 of Capt. Cox's men escorting a waggon, within half a mile of his fort, 4 luckily escaped, but the other 2 are missing.

The Cherokee's still continue in town, and have had several conferences with the governor and council; and we hear have agreed to proceed immediately to Winchester to join our forces.

Yesterday came to town several of the Nottoways, to renew their antient league with their Brothers the Cherokees, which was done in the market place, by smoaking the pipe &c. after which the Cherokee warrior made a long speech, desiring the Nottoways to go immediately to the assistance of their brothers the English, to fight strong, and drive away the French and Indians, who have seized the land of their father King George. The Nottoways have agreed to go, and will set off in a few days together with the Cherokees.

Philadelphia, May 6. Last week his honour our governor set out for Harris's ferry, to review the regiment, and forward the expedition to Shamokin, under the experienced Col. Clapham. His honour was escorted out of town by part of Capt. Jones's troop of horse, and the officers of Capt. Vandespiegle's independent company, who being all dressed in their uniform, made a genteel appearance.

We hear that the honourable house of commons presented an humble address to his majesty, some time in February, requesting 2 petitions from the inhabitants of this city to be laid before them.

We hear from Virginia, that the government, at their own expence, are going to send the French Neutra's that are there to England.

St. John's Antigua, April 10. The Cromwell sloop, commanded by Walter Stirling, Esq; has taken and sent into St. John's road, a French schooner laden chiefly with provisions.

New York, May 10. His excellency governor Shirley arrived at Albany on thursday last.

Several companies of 100 men each, have arrived here since our last, from distant parts of this colony, as part of the 1315 effective men which his excellency our governor is impowered to raise for the expedition against Crown Point.

Capt. William Finny, in the schooner Betsey, bound from York in Virginia, to Wanyah in South-Carolina, was overset the 17th of March last in a violent gale of wind, and every man on board drowned, except one man, named Finch, who continued on the wreck 'till the 21st of March, in lat. 33, when he was happily taken off by a French schooner bound from Mississippi for [illegible] where he got to St. Eustatia, and gave the above information.

Friday last Capt. [illegible] came to town with a company of our provincial forces, which have been raised in the counties of Queens and Suffolk, on Long Island: They embarked on saturday night, and sailed next morning for Albany.

—The same day a sloop arrived here from Halifax, with some officers and men belonging to his majesty's train of artillery posted at that place.

Extract of a Letter from Oswego, dated April 25 1756.

—"Since my last there is nothing new—I hope the feigning parties that lately insulted us, the news received, as we neither hear or see frequent reports of their fire arms in the woods, nor have we suffered lately by them; but we have been much upon our guard—By two Walk, a captain of a company of battoe men, I learn the inhabitants below are seized with an universal panic on what happened at the Carrying Place, and for fear of this garison: As this ill-timed terror may be of use to the enemy, and disadvantage to us, I have sent down Weds with his party, in hopes their presence may dispel their fears, and encourage all concerned to proceed on their duty. You may satisfy the world that we are all well at this date, and not apprehensive of danger. I hope our vigilance will prevent a surprize, and that our zeal for his majesty's service will unite us in a steady defence if attacked."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Albany, dated the 6th instant.

"Last week an express arrived here from fort William Henry, at lake George, and fort Edward, informing us, That the people in garison there, intended to go to their respective habitations, by the first day of May, the Time for which they were enlisted being then expired. A detachment of 200 of our militia, and 100 regulars, were immediately sent to relieve them; but as several of the New England men are since gone up, we expect our men will soon return. These of our people that did not go, threw money on the drum-head for those that went —Tuesday last we were alarmed by an express from the Carrying-place, with advice, that two Indians were come in there and reported, that two parties of French and Indians were on their march, one designed for the Carrying Place, and the other for the German Flats: Another party of our militia, and the troop, is gone to their aid; God knows what will be the event — A man, with his wife, and 6 children, were carried off from the German flats, by a party of Indians; who, in their way, and about a mile from thence, killed and scalped another man."

Philadelphia, May 13. On monday last the general assembly of this province met here.

By Capt. Allison, from Antigua, there is advice, that the French 74 gun ship, and 2 frigates, that lately took the Warwick man of war, and carried her into Martinico, expected to have found there one ship of 80 guns, 3 ships of 74 guns each, and 3 frigates having all sailed together for that port from Old France.

We hear that the assembly of Virginia have voted 65000l. for the defence of that province; and that they propose to build a range of forts along the frontiers, in order to join those of Maryland and Pennsylvania.

From Potowmack we have advice, that on the 22d of last month 6 Indians came through the North mountain, at Mills's Gap, about 5 miles from Cunningham's fort, and surprized one David Kelly and family; Kelly they killed and scalped, and carried off his wife and 6 children: That one boy, about 15 years of age, escaped, and brought the news to Winchester: upon which an express was sent to Col. Washington, who immediately sent a detachment of 30 men, who found Kelly, and buried him, and discovered the tracks of the Indians, but did not get up with them. That on the 23d and 24th 8 houses were burnt, 6 of which by the Indians, the other 2 supposed to be set on fire by some white people, for the sake of plunder. That 3 white men were seen with the Indians, one of which coming into a fort since on Opekin, was taken up, and sent to Goal, having a horse in his custody that belonged to a person that lived near the abovementioned Kelly. That Thomas Cressop, and the independent company, 39 in number, marched from Fort Cumberland on the 25th, intending for the Little Meadows, and about George's creek coming on fresh tracks, pursued with all speed, when, about 18 miles from the fort, they heard the Indians hollow behind them; that then they put themselves in order, and in a few minutes 5 of the enemy appeared in the waggon road; upon which a man in the rear fired, before they came against the [illegible] then fled as fast they could into a laurel swamp, and 40 paces off, where they were lately hid; and soon after 4 more appeared on horseback, whom our men immediately pursued, but they quitted their horses, and ran. That after pursuing them about a mile and a half, Cressop, and 2 of his company, came near one of the Indians, who turned and fired at Cressop, but at the same time firing at him. That Cressop was shot thro' the breast with a ball or shot, fell down, and expired in a minute; and that the Indian was wounded, but not mortally, for he other 2 gave him up to him, and kindly helped him. Our people then buried Cressop, and surrounding the fort, and on their way discovered the tracks of a large body, those by the [illegible] to the same company, and supposed to be upwards of 50, but they had turned out of the road, and so escaped.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Council of the said Province.

May it please Your Excellency,

WE His Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Clergy, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on Your safe Arrival to this Province; and, at the same Time, we cannot but testify, the deep Sense we have of the great Favour shewn us by our Gracious Sovereign, in appointing Your Excellency to this Government.

As Virtue and Religion not only constitute the true Dignity of human Nature, but likewise add the firmest Strength to civil Government, we therefore entertain the strongest Hope, that Your Excellency, by the Influence of Your Example, will discountenance, and, by the Weight of Your Power, abolish every Degree of Vice and Irreligion.

The distinguished Regard which You have been early taught to pay to the most sacred Religion of Christ, by the powerful Influence of living Examples in Your honourable Family, gives us a well grounded Assurance, that Your best and most earnest Endeavours will be exerted, to protect and strengthen us, in promoting this great Blessing and invaluable Privilege.

As it is our Duty, so we will implore the [illegible] Burden of Your [illegible] sincerely pray the Sovereign Ruler of all Events, to crown Your Endeavours for the Public Welfare, with uninterrupted Success; and to shed abroad in Your Heart, that internal Peace and true Comfort, which the World can neither give nor take away.

To which His Excellency made the following

ANSWER.

Gentlemen,

I Return you my very cordial Thanks for this Address, and shall esteem nothing more highly than the Continuance of your good Wishes, and Prayers for the Success of my Administration. My most earnest Endeavours shall never be wanting, to promote the Practice of true Religion and Christian Piety within this Province; by which alone, we can hope for the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God: And you, who are the Ministers of his most holy Word, may rely upon my effectual Support and Protection, that by your Lives and Doctrine, you may call the Wicked to Repentance, and establish a Spirit of Truth and Godliness among us.

LONDON, April 20.

THE following is his majesty's answer to the [illegible] presented to him on thursday last.

"I am always very glad to do any thing that is agreeable to my parliament and my people; and the [illegible] security of my people, and at this time of the year a body of the German troops should be brought over [illegible] I will give [illegible] the proper orders for that purpose.

We hear a person has lately been taken up for [illegible] correspondence, and a number of papers found upon him.

On thursday last 2 popish priests were taken into custody by his majesty's messengers. As was Mr. Fitzgerald, for a duel, on wednesday, in which the [illegible] to escape into foreign service.

This morning a large quantity of [illegible] shipped for Gibraltar and Port Mahon.
